How was the presentation? Did you get any materials? I would like to see them, I was on a plane last night so couldn't attend, too bad there aren't any others scheduled for Anchorage. I wonder about their outreach efforts to get the word out about these meetings?

Subject Keystone Center to Present Pebble Stakeholder Dialogue Study

Announcement:

The Keystone Center will visit Southwest Alaska during the week of October 13 to present its finding and recommendations from its Stakeholder Assessment and Dialogue Feasibility Study for the proposed Pebble Mine. The Keystone Center, an independent non-profit organization located in Colorado, conducted interviews with Alaska citizens concerned with the proposed Pebble Mine during the spring of 2008. The Center spent much of the summer developing a report and recommendations for a three-stage dialogue process to help Alaska citizens make informed decisions about whether to support a mine and if so, under what conditions. Staff members from the Center will hold a discussion of their findings and recommendations in Anchorage, Kenai, King Salmon, Dillingham, and Newhalen throughout the week.

Schedule:

Monday October 13 – Anchorage 4-6 PM at the Williamson Auditorium of the University of Alaska Anchorage Light snacks will be served

Tuesday October 14 – Kenai 4-6 PM in the Ward Building (Room 116) at Kenai Peninsula College Lights snacks will be served

Wednesday October 15 – King Salmon 10-12 AM at the Southwest Alaska Vocational Education Center (SAVEC) Lights snacks will be served

Wednesday October 15 – Dillingham 2:30 – 4:30 PM at the University of Alaska Fairbanks Bristol Bay Campus Lights snacks will be served

Thursday October 16 – Newhalen 4-6 PM at the Newhalen School Lights snacks will be served
